Commercial purposes, if any, included in the articles are intended only to advance or support one or more of the non-profit purposes of the corporation. No part of a corporation's profits or of its property or accretions to the value of the property may be distributed, directly or indirectly, to a member, a director or an officer of the corporation except in furtherance of its activities or as otherwise permitted by this Act.

Membership will be as follows:

1. A member in good standing of the Parish shall be any person, eighteen (18) years of age or over, who was baptized according to the rites of the Church, or was received into the Church through chrismatism, who lives according to the faith and canons of the church, abides by its regulations and by- laws of the Parish, and fulfils his or her financial obligations to both.
2. Persons who lead immoral lives or those who do not adhere to the principles above stated or who have entered into marriage with blood or spiritual relative cannot become members.

There shall be two (2) classes of membership: Regular Members and Life Members.

- a. Membership in the Corporation shall consist of two classes of Members, namely, Regular Members and Life Members, who the board of the Corporation may, by resolution, approve the admission of as Members of the Corporation.
 - i. Regular members (hereinafter called "members") shall be those persons who have fulfilled the above qualifications who make a written application together with payment to their membership fees and who are admitted as members by resolution of the directors. In the event that a majority of the directors are not satisfied with the qualification of any applicant, then the application upon the applicant's request in writing shall be referred to the members in a general meeting. Or otherwise changed or defined in the Uniform Community Regulations of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of Canada. Each Regular Member is entitled to receive notice of, attend, and vote at all meetings of Members, and each Regular Member shall be entitled to one (1) vote at such meetings. Regular members pay annually. In order to remain a member in good standing, regular members must continue to pay this fee annually.
 - ii. Life Members shall be those persons who have fulfilled the above qualifications who make a written application together with payment to their membership fees and who are admitted as members by resolution of the directors. In the event that a majority of the directors are not satisfied with the qualification of any applicant, then the application upon the applicant's request in writing shall be referred to the members in a general meeting. Or otherwise changed or defined in the Uniform Community Regulations of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of Canada. Each Life Member is entitled to receive notice of, attend, and vote at all meetings of Members, and each Life Member shall be entitled to one (1) vote at such meetings. Life Members pay a one-time, lump sum fee and become a member for life.
